All traders

- All traders must have a PAT test certificate for all portable electrical equipment intended for use, or evidence of date of purchase if less than 1 year old.
- All traders must hold the appropriate insurance and public liability insurance certification and agree to be wholly liable for any product or professional liability.
- Any business waste must be stored in suitable containers whilst on site.
- Traders are responsible for removing their business waste at the end of each day from their pitch or more frequently as needed to the designated area.
- Traders shall place recyclables (only) in the recycle bins where applicable.
- Together Levenmouth will have an uplift at the end of the day for reasonable amounts of consumer waste
- To better serve the customers, traders must post a professional and visible sign displaying their business and prices. If they are selling food or drink this must include a list of any allergens in their product.
- Traders must ensure all excess stock is held out of sight.
- Traders must ensure security of all items on their stall including any cash and Together Levenmouth accept no liability for stock or cash held on site.

Food and Drink traders

- Traders selling alcohol must obtain an occasional licence. If proof has not been provided on or before the date of the market, we reserve the right to withhold consent to trade with no refund given.
- Traders selling food (hot or cold) must hold the appropriate food hygiene certificates as well as a gas safety certificate for any gas appliances intended for use. A copy of this should be either on display or available for inspection by a representative of Together Levenmouth prior to opening.
- Together Levenmouth reserves the right to prohibit traders who fail safety or Environmental Health inspections from returning as a trader at subsequent events.

Payments and refunds

- Traders are required to pay for their pitch in full to secure a space.
- In the event of a total cancellation of the event any fees paid by the trader will be fully repayable, unless the event is postponed due to inclement weather, in which case, we will offer an alternative date.

Covid-19 restrictions

- Government restrictions must be adhered to at all times. Remember that these may be varied at short notice, so you may wish to check latest guidelines before attending.
- If you feel unwell during the event, please call on a member of staff and exit the market immediately.
